

AFFIDAVIT OF [REDACTED]

State of Missouri

County of [REDACTED]

BEFORE ME, the undersigned Notary Public, personally appeared [REDACTED] who currently resides at [REDACTED] Missouri in the county [REDACTED] and makes this their statement and affidavit upon oath and affirmation of belief and personal knowledge that the following matters, facts, and things set forth are true and correct to the best of their knowledge:

On Saturday, November 14th, 2015, I picked up the Brunners from their hotel in downtown Kansas City.

Approximately 2-3 minutes into the drive, John Brunner received a call. I heard Eric Greitens announce himself. I also heard John Brunner refer to the caller as Eric, thus confirming to me that it was Eric Greitens.

John Brunner was cordial. Eric Greitens was agitated. He wanted John to meet with him right away. John explained that he was with the campaign. Eric began yelling and calling John names. He demanded that John meet with him tomorrow (Sunday). Eric demanded that John meet him at his (Eric's) boxing gym. Eric's tone was ominous. John agreed to meet on Monday at 7 a.m. to accommodate Eric's plans that included a flight later that day. After several minutes of trying to agree on a day and time, both men agreed on Monday at 7 a.m. at Starbucks in Eric's neighborhood. They mutually ended the call.

Approximately 2-3 minutes later, John Brunner's phone rang again and John announced the name on the caller ID was Eric Greitens. Eric was immediately threatening and harassing in the similar manner as the previous call. This behavior was highly disturbing. I signaled to John that I was pulling up the recording app. I signaled to John to put the call on speaker as this relentless attack was an extension of the first phone call. John again tried to calm Eric down and was able to determine that Eric had agreed to a meeting that had conflicted with his own schedule. Typically, normal behavior would dictate an apology in order to resolve a conflict in schedule. Instead, the behavior seemed irrational and unstable. I was shocked with Eric's yelling and accusing John Brunner of ducking a meeting that Eric had agreed to just moments before.

After approximately 10 minutes they agreed to meet on Sunday, Nov. 22nd at 3:00 pm. at the Starbucks at Euclid and Maryland. They mutually ended the call.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of Missouri that the foregoing is true and correct.
