ADMINISTRATIVE HEARING
COMMISSION

Greetings,

My name is Courtney Allen Curtis. I was recently issued a decision from the MO Ethics commission, and I would like to appeal the decision.

I'd like to appeal for the following reasons.

- I asked for a continuance because I didn't have nearly as much time as the Ethics did to bring their case, and to review all evidence in order to represent myself fully.
- I represented myself during the legislative session where time, and my experience were limited.
- I did not present evidence to the commission in order to refute several allegations because I was reading through all of the documents, and records that they went through in order to gather, and explain several transactions after reviewing the documents in their entirety.
- I did not object to certain evidence that fell out of the scope of the audit timeline because I was going to do that all at once.
- There was at least one bank error that led to an allegation of comingling funds, and that evidence wasn't presented to be taken into consideration.
- There is evidence of banks administratively closing several accounts which led to additional counts.
- A campaign debit card was stolen resulting in over $1000 in charges, and subsequent late reports waiting for the money to be returned, and then for bank records to be used to clear up any issues or purchases with the stolen card.
- Since the ethics investigation started I have filed limited activity reports so that I wouldn't incur additional charges, or fines for inaccurate reporting. Choosing to wait til it was all clear, and then finally update all records preventing further penalties or corrections to the records, which resulted in additional late reported expenditures and contributions.
- I haven't calculated the amounts that add up to the late contributions, and expenditures but I think somethings calculated where either from the theft, from the intentionally limited activity reports filed, and possibly from contributions received after certain deadlines, and reported late because of travel schedules.
- I've paid ethics commission quite a bit of money in the amount of $10 per day late for filing reports late, and to fine me again after an audit, seems like being fined and charged twice for the same things.
- Additionally my campaign laptop including all of my financial records was stolen for which I have a police report for, which led to having to work through all records and led to subsequent late reports and contributions or expenses.

I've attached the latest information that ethics has provided to me, and have an entire box of documents of records that I may provide to you at your request.

Please inform me as to how this appeals process works, and what the steps are so that I can fully avail myself of all of the potential remedies that you offer.

Cordially,
Courtney Allen Curtis

2. The candidate “shall file a statement of organization with the appropriate officer within twenty days after the person or organization becomes a committee.” § 130.021.5, RSMo.
3. The appropriate officer for a candidate for the Missouri House of Representatives is the Missouri Ethics Commission. § 130.026.2(2), RSMo.
4. The statement of committee organization must include the “name and mailing address of its depository, and the name and account number of each account the committee has in the depository.” § 130.021.5, RSMo.
5. The statement of committee organization must include the name and office sought by the candidate. § 130.021.5(9), RSMo.

7. There is probable cause to believe that Respondents violated §130.021.5 and §130.021.7, RSMo, by failing to timely update the election date and office sought by Respondent Curtis after he was successful in the November 2014 general election, and by failing to timely report changes to Respondents’ official fund depository account to the Commission, and that Respondents did so knowingly.
